

IJM Volunteer: National Student Leadership Team

Position Application

2017-2018

International Justice Mission's National Student Leadership Team (NSLT) is an elite group of college leaders who help lead and shape the justice movement on campuses across the country.

As a part of the team, members will have an opportunity to leverage their ingenuity, passion, and expertise to build an unstoppable movement for justice. Members will also receive leadership development, trainings and coaching with IJM staff.

This program provides real-world leadership opportunities that will prepare you to lead now and after graduation.

Successful candidates are proven leaders who are deeply committed to the fight against slavery and ready to take their leadership work the next level.

Will you join us?

Job Description

- Articulate with passion, intelligence and credibility the nature of IJM's work and the vision of student mobilization to a diverse student population.
- Provide inspiration, motivation and support to campus chapter leaders in your region, including answering questions regarding college programs via email, calls and social media.
- Help develop student mobilization strategies and campaigns.
- Creatively leverage social media to recruit, engage and mobilize students in the fight against violent oppression.
- Attend regular NLST meetings.
- Participate in leadership development opportunities offered by IJM.
- Collaborate with campus chapters (in person when necessary) in your region to maximize participation in IJM initiatives and campaigns, including prayer, advocacy and fundraising.
- Uphold standards of excellence by meeting deadlines and following through on all commitments and assignments.

Required Skills & Experience

- Ability to manage a large number of projects and tasks simultaneously and to complete them with minimal oversight.
- 1-2 years' experience serving as a justice leader on your campus.
- Prior experience mentoring college or high school-aged students (preferred).
- Exceptional written and oral communication skills, including the ability to give compelling presentations.

Critical Qualities

- Self-starter with strong initiative, tenacity and dependability.
- Adept at creative problem solving.

- Proven leader and effective team player.
- Humble and eager to learn.
- Strong organizational skill.
- Disciplined with priorities.
- Contagious passion for IJM.
- Mature, orthodox Christian faith and understanding of the biblical call to engage in the work of justice.
- Genuine passion for working with peer leaders.

OPEN POSITIONS FOR 2017-2018

President

The President is a strong leader and communicator who is able to lead a remote team of fellow student leaders. The President will work directly with IJM staff to lead the NSLT.

Responsibilities

- Communication liaison between IJM staff & NSLT.
- Provides updates on current team projects and initiatives.
- Leads team meetings.
- Works closely with Student Mobilization Manager to manage, delegate and assign responsibilities with the NSLT.
- Facilitate and promote team building efforts and develop effectiveness of each team member.

Regional Vice Presidents

Regional Vice Presidents are personable, innovative, organized, encouraging, solution-oriented and able to relate well with all personality types. Their primary responsibility is to build strong, lasting relationships with campus chapter leaders around the country and to support those leaders in contributing powerfully to national goals.

The regions are generally: Northeast, Mid-Atlantic, Southeast, Midwest, Southwest & West.

Responsibilities

- Communication liaison between campus leaders in designated region and IJM HQ.
- Regularly connect with and support campus leaders' engagement with IJM campaigns.
- Support IJM's campus chapter tracking system, ensuring that accurate information is maintained for all schools and student leaders in your region.
